

Write a dialogue (conversation) between these 2 characters. Think carefully about what they say, HOW they say it and any extra sentences you might need to help build this section of the story. Use your speech marks carefully. Each time a character talks – remember to start a new line. Give your characters names.

Example:

“I think we might be a bit lost, should we go left or right up ahead?” said John nervously.

Anna paused and thought for a moment. She was feeling tired, her knees were starting to hurt and it was going to be dark soon. “Perhaps we should just turn back and see if we can remember which way we came?” she replied.

“I know, I’ll just check the map on my phone, it’ll be fine.” John said, trying to sound and look as cheery as he could. However, he soon froze in horror. “Oh no, my phone isn’t in my pocket,” he shrieked. They both stood still as John started checking all his pockets and his rucksack.

“You MUST have it, my phone is no good, I dropped it in the river that we crossed ages ago, it is soaked through...if you’ve lost your phone we are REALLY lost, what are we going to do....?” Anna was starting to panic and you could hear it in her voice, she almost sounded close to tears.

“I’m sure I had it after the river, and I took pictures near the big oak we passed. So, if I have lost it, it can only be a mile or 2 back down the track.”

“A MILE OR 2!” Yelled Anna, “But it will be dark before we walk that far, then how will we find it? We’ll have to walk slowly checking all the way and what if we DON’T find it...then what?”
